

The 1957 ALLihi

The Fort Valley High School Key Club

Foreword

"Come read to me some poem
Some simple and heartfelt lay!
And the night shall be filled with music,
And the cares, that infest the day,
Shall fold their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away."

So comes this little recording Out of the yesterdays-Filled with its thoughts and fears Echoing its laughter and tears. Some of the notes are sour, Some of the tones are sweet; Some of the music is lilting, Some of it dark with defeat. Half forgotten melodies, Glimpse of Auld Lang Syne; Chords from other years Mingling in one great refrain. Steeped in the magic of High School, Led by youth's baton The orchestra swells with our memories And resounds with our dreams and songs. So you may open this Album—Everything is here; The Repertoire of the Class of One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Seven.

Superintendent's Message

Members of the Class of 1957,

Class after class, I have watched young men and women complete high school and step across the boundary of graduation to an adventure full of excitement and new joys and sorrows. In this book, you are looking once backward before turning ahead with hope and courage.

I speak for all of your teachers and friends when I say that the future can be bright if you will build on the finest you have been taught. With confidence in the truths you have learned add accomplishment to your life. Never fail to apply to each new task all the industry and determination of which you are capable.

Sincerely,

ERNEST R. ANDERSON, SUPERINTENDENT
